Mr. James W. Fitzgerald, who has for several years made a most acceptable City Treasurer, asks a re-election to that office. If faithfulness to duty and courteous treatment to all who have business with that official count for anything, Mr. Fitzgerald ought to have a walk-over for the place.

The celebration of Decoration Day at Harrison O. will be as grand as well as an interesting departure from former customs. The old veterans, who are members of Grant Post of that town, will be taken in charge by the citizens and driven in carriages to the speakers' stand, and afterward to the cemetery, where they will witness the decorating of the graves of their former comrades by the citizens of Harrison. It is said that this will be the first occasion where the old veterans will occupy the position of spectators.

George F. Brown, Grand Secretary of the U. C. T. for Kentucky and West Virginia, will leave tomorrow night to attend the Great Council at Richmond, Va., which meets for business Friday, then stays in Saturday and Sunday with excursions and banquets. Mrs. Brown will accompany him to see that he doesn't eat too much—or get lost.

Mayor W. E. Stallecupps announced in today's Litton as a candidate for Mayor, seeking a re-election to the office he has so well filled for nearly four years. His public acts have never called forth adverse criticism, his assiduity to duty has ever been favorably commented on, and his courtesy and watchfulness have always given credit and ability to the honorable office as the head executive of the proud little city over which he presides and which cannot be wrested from him in November unless some one with much tenacity and great confidence induces the voters otherwise.

THE MAYSVILLE GUN CLUB

Yesterday Afternoon's Shoots Quite Interesting.

J. S. FANNING OF NEW YORK PRESENT

The day target shoot at the Maysville Gun Club's grounds yesterday afternoon was quite an event, inasmuch as it was attended by one of America's most prominent shotgun artists, Mr. J. S. Fanning of New York, who holds two very prominent championships in this country. Mr. Fanning was accompanied by Mr. Jack Skelley, also an accomplished shotgun artist.

There were two shoots, with the following scores—

|                       | First. | Second. |
|-----------------------|--------|---------|
| J. S. Fanning.....    | 22     | 19      |
| Jack Skelley.....     | 22     | 19      |
| W. H. Wadsworth.....  | 22     | 19      |
| H. M. Wilson.....     | 22     | 19      |
| S. A. Shanklin.....   | 22     | 19      |
| John Herchert.....    | 22     | 19      |
| E. Kirk.....          | 22     | 19      |
| R. H. Newell.....     | 22     | 19      |
| W. S. Watson.....     | 22     | 19      |
| C. H. Russell.....    | 22     | 19      |
| James Crawford.....   | 22     | 19      |
| John Dea.....         | 22     | 19      |
| Harry Orr.....        | 22     | 19      |
| E. H. Nesbitt.....    | 22     | 19      |
| Douglas McDowell..... | 22     | 19      |
| Edward Flowers.....   | 22     | 19      |
| T. A. Keith.....      | 22     | 19      |

Mr. Fanning, after the regular contest, gave an exhibition of his fancy shooting by breaking 50 out of 60 targets. He left this morning for Paris, where he will spend two days.

On the 25th of the month he will accompany the American Gun Club to England, where it goes to compete for $5,000 with the English Gun Club in a shooting contest of 1,000 targets, 500 in 5, each man to have 100 targets. The American Club is composed of the following gentlemen—

Thomas A. Marshall, Captain, Keilburg, Ill.
W. R. Crosby, O'Fallon, Ill.
R. R. Adams, Dayton, O.
Fred Gilbert, Spirit Lake, Ia.
C. W. Budd, Des Moines, Ia.
F. S. Jarmies, Omaha, Neb.
C. M. Powers, Decatur, Ill.
R. M. Merrill, Milwaukee, Wis.
J. A. R. Elliott, Kansas City, Mo.
J. S. Fanning, New York City.

After the contest shoot the Club will give exhibition shoots at Edinburgh, Glasgow, Dublin and Paris, returning to this country in time to take part in the prize tournament at the Pan-American Exposition July 21st to 26th.

Yesterday was Mr. Fanning's first visit to Maysville, and like all others, he expressed his great admiration for the Maysville Gun Club and all those whom he met. He is a capital gentleman, and THE LEDGER hopes that he will make his visits to Maysville of a more frequent nature.

D. HECHINGER & CO

Our store in the past two weeks has been a veritable beehive; in fact, we experienced great difficulty to wait on our customers. We take occasion here to express our thanks to those who waited so patiently last Saturday until we found time to wait on them. Now, there is a cause for every effect. For $10, $12, $15 and $18 you buy Suits in our house that you cannot duplicate elsewhere.

Another thing that brings people who are particular as to what and how to wear clothes to us, is that we let nothing go out of our store unless we are satisfied it is "just right." In short, you make no mistake in having us to look after your needs in everything that goes to make up a gentleman's wardrobe.

Our Children's and Boys' Department is one of infinite satisfaction, both to parents and the youngsters; we please the first named in price and durability of the goods and we please the boys in style and fit. Our Hat and Shirt Departments are features in themselves. As for Shoes, we need but say that Hanan & Son's and W. L. Douglas are our leaders. We guarantee every pair we sell.

Have you seen our latest importation of Neckwear? It's worth your while to look at it. It will interest you. Notwithstanding the elegance of the goods, we sell them at the most popular price of 25 cents and 50 cents.

THE HOME STORE D. HECHINGER & CO.

THE BEE HIVE WORTH READING TWICE

A GREAT SALE OF MUSLIN UNDERWEAR—No store in such a specialty store as the store that succeeds. Some people say that the reason we do such a large business is because we are on the RIGHT side of the street. There is no such thing as a store being on the wrong side of the street. You'll go across the street or around the corner to the place that does things best.

MAYSVILLE UNDERWEAR STORE

Is only another name for THE BEE HIVE. There is a daintiness and liberality of size that women appreciate. The garments we sell are such as you would make for yourself if you had time and took kindly to needlework. Last week's selling has passed all records, and yet the lots were so great that the sale is only well begun. Struggling shipments have come in, and today the stock is at its BEST.

CORSET COVERS. SKIRTS.
DRAWERS. NIGHTGOWNS.

FLOOR COVERINGS!

Don't worry over the purchase of a carpet. There are a few points to be considered which make carpet buying easy. Decide to get a good carpet. Resolve not to let a few dollars stand between you and the carpet you really like. If the price offered is lower than such carpets usually sell for and you like the price but not the carpet, rest assured the owner don't like it either, else you wouldn't get the offer.

BUY YOUR CARPET

Of a house that never beats around the bush but protects you every time in quality and price. Buy where you can see an abundant assortment—select your carpet and don't worry—it's sure to be right. Under these conditions it's safer to come direct to Hunt's where Ingrains, Tapestries, Moquettes, Brussels, Axminsters, Wilton Velvets can be found in varied designs from 25c to $12½ a yard. Come here, where business never swerves from the principle that we benefit ourselves most when we serve you best.
